Serving Plano and Southern Collin County Since 1888

VOL. 88—NO. 67

PLANO, TEXAS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1975

FIFTEEN CENTS

The area around the deserted Princeton Speedway, located in east central Collin County, was busy yesterday as area law enforcement officers searched for clues in the death of 20-year-old Elvalda Joy Gann of Dallas, whose skeleton remains were found scattered across the area by a hunter Tuesday. In the photo on the left, Chief Deputy Royce Abbott is shown walking back down a lonely road from the site where most of the remains were found, while above, Sheriff Jerry Burton is seen discussing the search with several law enforcement officers. On the right (top) is Miss Gann's skull which was found by the hunter Tuesday evening, while below, Plano Police Dept. Sgt. Tommy Ashley (left) and two other officers discover additional bones in a field. (Staff photos by Mike Newman).

Skeleton Identified

Officers Meeting Today To Identify Other Victim

A skeleton found Tuesday near the deserted Princeton Speedway has been identified as being the remains of a Dallas woman, but area law enforcement officers are still stumped over the identification of another skeleton found last week.

According to Collin County Sheriff's Deputy Royce Abbott, area officers—along with representatives from the Texas Rangers—were to meet late this morning in McKinney and attempt to come up with a more accurate physical description of the girl whose remains were found last week in the Blue Ridge Park area of Lake Lavon, approximately five miles from the skeleton found Tuesday. The scattered remains found this week were identified as belong to 20-year-old Elvalda Joy Gann, an unemployed Dallas waitress who disappeared from the home of friends on April 4.

Although no definite cause of death has been established, Collin County Sheriff Jerry Burton says as far as he's concerned, it's a homicide.

"We're going to carry it as a homicide until we can substantiate it otherwise," he commented Wednesday.

Chief Deputy Abbott agreed with this conclusion Wednesday morning and further speculated that Miss Gann's death was definitely linked with the murders of three other young women within the past month.

"I think a connection is definitely very possible," Abbott said. "They were all young women and the ones we've been able to identify were all alone late at night."

Abbott was referring to 19-year-old Sandra Kay Beddow of Allen, whose strangled body was found in a creekbed in far north Plano on April 26, and 14-year-old Carol Marie Anderson of Dallas, who remains were found by fisherman near Melissa on May 9.

Miss Anderson had been shot once in the back of the head with a .22 caliber mungum weapon, as was the 16 to 18-year-old unidentified girl whose skeleton was found last week.

Miss Gann's cause of death is still undetermined, but Abbott thinks the Dallas County Medical Examiner's Office may come up with some clues.

"It's in the hands of the medical examiner now, but I think he'll probably come up with something."

Abbott also was confident the medical examiner would determine a positive identification on the remains found last week. The examiner's office staff currently is processing thousands of dental records to help establish an identity.

Miss Gann was identified by an identification card which was found among her personal effects Wednesday. Found in a covered well near the body was Miss Gann's purse, makeup items and the card. Also found nearby was personal clothing.

According to Dallas sources, Miss Gann, a divorcee was staying with Mr. and Mrs. Elton Crawford in Dallas at the time of her disappearance. Mrs. Crawford said the woman had been living with her and her husband off and on for three years.

Of Electrical Power

No Shortage Seen

By WILLIAM E. CLAYTON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — There won't be any electrical power shortages this winter because there is ample reserve generating capacity, the Federal Power Commission says.

But the agency warned Americans must continue to conserve energy.

The annual winter electric load forecast Wednesday said, "Although electric energy supply does not appear likely to present a major problem in the 1975-76 winter, it could become critical in a few years because of delays in construction of nuclear plants now under construction and the expected future tightening of fossil fuel supplies.

"If electric load growth returns to historic rates, the energy supply problems will become even more difficult," the report said.

The FPC estimated the winter's peak load will be 329,157 megawatts and that "dependable resources" of electricity total 477,919 megawatts.

That means a cushion of 45.2 per cent above the highest projected demand.

The reasons? Americans are conserving, the winter has been mild, new generators have started up and, even though natural gas is in shorter supply, utilities have access to plenty of alternate fuels, the report said.

The margin of safety is even larger than usual, the report said. But it noted, "This is regarded as a temporary situation, and it is expected that an improving economy, with concomitant increase in demand, will result in reduced margins by next summer and next winter."

Department Extinguishes Brush Fire

A brush fire was reported this morning at 12:55 a.m. on Roundrock south of Crossbend, according to a Plano Fire Dept. spokesman.

Firefighters also extinguished a tree fire at Los Rios Country Club near the golf course at 6:28 p.m. Wednesday. In other activity, the men responded to a grease fire at 3393 Sherwood which was already out when they arrived at 7:35 p.m., made a smoke investigation, answered a false alarm of a grass fire and made two ambulance runs.

In Area V Contest

FFA Wins Awards

Plano Senior High School's Future Farmers of America chapter placed second in sweepstakes out of 14 teams entered in the District V Area V Leadership Contest in Frisco recently, while Williams High School students captured a first and second place in skills contests.

The Senior High's chapter conducting team led by president Valerie Eldred earned fifth place. Other team members include vice-president Debra Tarrant, secretary Melissa Carter, treasurer Tim Moore, reporter Susie Harrison, sentinel John Poindexter and student advisor Ricky Carter.

The chapter radio team consisting of Debbie Astleford, Vicki Gilmore and Jennifer Huffman placed fourth in competition.

Also earning fourth from the Senior High was the farm skills team comprised of David Chaddick, Johnny McCullough and Butch Norris.

Team members from Williams earned a first place in Greenhand farm skills, a second in chapter farm skills and a seventh in radio broadcasting. They include Greg Record, Kirt Young, Eddie Thomas, Eddie Colflesh and Robby Myers. Others are Mark Stanford, George Ridpath, David Peckham and David Reid.

With Bill Harrington as president, Haggard's Greenhand chapter conducting team placed fifth in the Leadership Contest. Other officers include vice president Mark Smith, secretary Melanie Pringle, treasurer Velynda Carter, reporter Joe Thomas, sentinel Bryan McGee and student advisor Kathy Furrh.

Placing sixth also from Haggard were Greenhand quiz team Susan Banfield, Lee Craiglow, Curtis Fuller and Lisa Yowell.

Burglary Suspect Arrested

A burglary suspect was arrested by Plano police Tuesday.

The juvenile is being questioned about a residential burglary which occurred last week.

Officers also arrested four other persons including three illegal aliens and one shoplifter. In other activity, police took a theft report and a burglary report from the Dairy Queen on Avenue K. An undetermined amount of money was taken in the burglary.

Police also answered 39 calls for assistance and investigated a major accident at the intersection of 15th and K. Two persons sustained minor injuries in the crash.

A 1974 Chevrolet driven by Michael Samuel Wallis of McKinney and a 1970 Opel driven by William Paul Crabtree of Dallas were in collision at 10:20 p.m. Crabtree and Ricky Glenn Luttrell of 2813 18th, a passenger in the Crabtree vehicle, were taken to Plano General Hospital.

It's A Wildcat

To discover what this picture is, most readers will have to hold today's edition of the Daily Star-Courier at arm's length. The abstract of lines and shapes actually becomes a Wildcat when viewed from a distant perspective. The mural, given to the Plano Independent School District by the architectural firm of Jarvis, Putty and Jarvis, dominates the south entrance hall of the Activities Building at the new Senior High School. The ferocious-looking mascot will greet fans early next year when the basketball team moves its home games to the new facility. The building is expected to be complete by Christmas, according to Batson-Cook Co., contractor on the job. (Staff photo by Mike Newman).

Carson to Movies

BURBANK, Calif. (UPI) — Johnny Carson has been offered $1 million to star in the movie version of Irwin Shaw's new novel, "Nightworks."

The offer was made Wednesday night on the "Tonight Show with Johnny Carson" on NBC-TV by Shaw's agent, Irving "Swifty" Lazar, who was interviewed by Carson.

"I'd play Joan of Arc and you could burn me at the stake for a million dollars," Carson quipped when Lazar offered him a check.

At first Carson did not take the offer seriously. But an NBC spokesman said later he was considering it and Lazar insisted it was a bona fide offer.

The part offered Carson is that of a night clerk in a flophouse, the lead character.

Singer Divorced

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Singer Dionne Warwick, 34, was granted a divorce Wednesday from her husband of 10 years, actor Bill Elliott, 41.

Miss Warwick was given custody of their two sons, 2 and 6. Division of community property is to be decided in a trial next year.

Due to Costs

Wood-Burners Return

By CHARLES S. TAYLOR
ATLANTA (UPI) — Soaring utility bills have brought back a relic from the American past — the wood-burning stove which can cut heating costs significantly.

Pot-bellied cast iron stoves and other models that were America's favorites many years ago are rolling off the assembly line again and selling as fast as they can be shipped.

Riding the crest of the boom is the Atlanta Stove Works, headquartered in an old redbrick building in a section of Atlanta little changed since the turn of the century. The stove works began operations in 1889 and has been owned by the same Atlanta family since the 1890s — "over 85 years of knowing how," as the company's motto puts it.

"It's fantastic what's happened not only here but nationwide," says sales manager Murray Frizzelle. "The energy crisis has caused this thing. Our sales have more than doubled in three years. We expect another increase next year."

At one time, the Atlanta Stove Works was two years behind on orders for its woodburning stoves. With expansion and automation, it has caught up and now can ship out an order about two weeks after it is received.

The exception is its four-holer wood cook stove, which comes equipped with an oven and a warmer. This stove that graced the kitchens of many American homes in the 1800s is still on allocation; that is, dealers can get only a limited number. In style and design it is much the same as it was 100 years ago.

Prices range from about $100 for the cheapest "two-eye burner" up to $450 for a circulating stove with thermostat. The cooking range sells for about $415.

The company has its own foundry, located in Birmingham, Ala., and has warehouses in Georgia, Alabama, Texas, Maryland, Missouri, Indiana, Iowa, California, and Oregon. It has 15,000 to 20,000 retail outlets across the country.

Frizzelle says companies that make wood and coal burning stoves have dwindled over the years. "I doubt if there's over a dozen or 15 now, nationwide," he said. "But I can remember when there were 50 or 60."

Atlanta Stove Works is probably one of the top three manufacturers of coal and burners nationally, Frizzelle said. But he declined to give any information on dollar volume or the number of stoves sold.

The wood and coal burners are sold mostly to rural customers, he said, with urban householders buying them as backups to their oil or electric heating systems, and to cut utility bills.

"A woman called me from Hixson, Tenn., the other day," Frizzelle said. "She told me she had one of our thermostatically controlled automatic wood burners. They were heating their $50,000 house with it and shutting off the furnace."

The stoves with thermostats, he said, can be fired up at the beginning of the winter season and kept going non-stop through the cold weather, holding their fire overnight with dampers closed.

Frizzelle says it's best to burn hardwood, such as hickory, red oak, beech and hard maple. Hickory furnishes 30.6 million BTUs per air-dry cord, equivalent to 218 gallons of No. 2 heating oil. Red oak supplies 27.3 million BTUs, equal to 195 gallons of heating oil. With beech and maple only slightly less productive in heating units, he said.

New Show Planned by WFAA-TV

"Call It Macaroni," a unique program for youngsters in which children discover different lifestyles and broaden their knowledge of the world, will premiere on WFAA-TV, Channel 8, on Saturday, Dec. 13 at 11:30 a.m.

In "Call It Macaroni," the emphasis is on participation. Each week, several children are placed in a situation new to them — and the camera follows their actions and reactions. "Call It Macaroni" will cover a variety of situations, from life in a circus to life at a major league training camp, and to — as in the premiere episode — climbing a mountain.

The show replaces the Saturday airing of "Peppermint Place," which will continue in its weekday 6:30 a.m. time period.

"Just a small detour. I'll meet you over the next hill."

—Crime Alert—
Burglaries Can Be Prevented

BY PAM TROBOY

More than three million burglaries were committed in the U.S. last year.

Plano recorded 414 burglaries during that period and police have already received 447 confirmed reports during the first 10 months of this year.

Local authorities believe that this increase is caused in part by citizens who leave their property unsecured. About 52 percent of Plano's residential burglaries involve an open or unlocked door or window, and 89 percent of residential thefts involve unsecured property.

As the Federal Bureau of Investigation notes, burglary is a crime of stealth and opportunity; and the Plano Police Dept. would like to eliminate the burglar's easy opportunity.

Unlocked doors and windows make entry simple to even the least experienced burglar and the lack of interest and concern of neighbors helps insure time to work, police say. Obvious signs of absence also give burglars the confidence that they can work undisturbed.

After a burglary has occurred, a delay in reporting losses makes police work more difficult, a department spokesman pointed out. If a resident is unable to describe the stolen items, officers also have difficulty in recovering the property.

"Most people make it easy for burglars to work," he said, "but a little extra care and thought can reduce your chance of becoming a target for burglars."

To make your home safe from burglars, Plano police recommend the following procedures.

GET NEW LOCKS or have tumblers reset when you move into a home that has been occupied. You have no way of knowing who has keys to your door.

DON'T HIDE KEYS outside the door. If you can hide it, a burglar can find it. If you want an extra key nearby, leave one with a trusted neighbor.

HAVE GOOD, SAFE LOCKS on all doors. Use auxiliary deadbolt locks on all exterior doors and lock the doors whenever you go out.

INSTALL AN ALARM that can be used to detect entry or smoke. Post a notice on doors and windows that your residence has an alarm.

DON'T LET STRANGERS INTO YOUR HOME. Use a peephole or talk-through device. Ask for identification, people on legitimate business will be glad to show identification.

REPORT BROKEN STREET LIGHTS in your neighborhood. Well-lit areas discourage burglars by taking away their hiding places.

DON'T LEAVE HOUSE AND CAR KEYS TOGETHER with attendants at public parking lots. Your house keys can be quickly duplicated and your address obtained from your plate number.

DON'T GIVE INFORMATION to strangers on the phone. On wrong-number calls don't tell the caller your number and report continued wrong numbers to the phone company.

USE METAL GRILLWORK on glass in entrance doors and decorative side glass to prevent burglars from breaking the glass and reaching inside to open the door.

REPORT TO POLICE any strangers loitering in your neighborhood or people asking strange or vague questions about your neighbors and their whereabouts.

Stun Gun Ban Viewed Said to be Hazardous Weapon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Consumer Product Safety Commission is investigating whether it should ban an electric "stun gun" that shocks its victims with current-carrying darts.

The gun has been promoted as a self-defense weapon for warding off and immobilizing attackers without seriously hurting them. It has also been used in at least one robbery and has been banned in Nassau County, N.Y.

The commission was petitioned for a ban or other control by Michael A. Lubin of Washington, D.C., who said the weapon is a "hazardous product because no feasible consumer product safety standard would adequately protect the public from the unreasonable risk of injury associated with it."

The specific product is called the "Taser F1" or the "Taser Public Defender," manufactured by Taser Systems of Los Angeles.

Efforts to reach company officials for comment were unsuccessful.

The gun resembles and functions as a flashlight unless the user pushes a release bar. When that happens, Lubin told the commission, the device discharges "two small barbed contacts connected to five wires which conduct a 50,000-volt charge."

"The electrical power is capable of passing through one and one-half inches of clothing into the body of the target and generates an electrical current that dominates the existing neuromuscular system," the petition added. "The muscles contract involuntarily, rendering the victim helpless, possibly in pain, and almost immediately unconscious."

The current can be stopped by releasing the trigger, or be reapplied at will, he added.

Review Pressed For King Case

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Pressure is building to have Congress launch its own review of the investigation of the assassination of civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr.

Democratic whip Robert C. Byrd D-W.Va., urged the Senate Intelligence Committee to conduct a "thorough review" of the original FBI investigation that led to the conviction of James Earl Ray as a lone assassin.

Rep. Phillip Burton, D-Calif., said the House Judiciary Committee should study the matter.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, who worked under King in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said Congress should review the assassination because of possible "involvement in a conspiracy by the government itself."

Attorney General Edward H. Levi has ordered Justice Department officials to consider reopening the FBI investigation of King's death in Memphis in 1968.

Levi said he acted because of disclosures by the Senate Intelligence Committee that the late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had conducted a long program of harrasing King through illegal wiretaps and intimidation.

Paul Bunyon Games Set On Saturday

The annual Paul Bunyon Games will be conducted from 1 until 5 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 7, at the 84 Lumber Co., located at Spring Creek Rd. and Hwy. 75, near Wells Bros.

The Games are open to all men, women and children and will feature contests in nail-driving, cross-cut sawing, log rolling, and tobacco "putting" for distance and accuracy. There will also be nail guessing and coloring contests for the children.

Winners in each event will receive a free turkey as a prize, donated by the lumber company.

Newly opened, the 84 Lumber Co. in Plano is part of a nationwide chain which began in Eighty Four, Penn., in 1967. The Games are an annual affair with all stores in the chain.

UTD Musical Opens

Planoites Featured in Cast

The Theater and Music Programs at The University of Texas at Dallas will present the hit Broadway musical "Company" at 8 p.m. tonight through Saturday in the lower level of the McDermott Library on the UT-Dallas campus.

"Company" is a comedy on a serious theme which deals with the themes of marriage and the loneliness of the individual in a complex and powerful manner. Portions of the musical, which features Planoites in some of the roles, was presented for Friends of the Library in the Gladys Harrington Public Library on Nov. 24.

At the heart of the action is Robert, one of New York City's most eligible men about town. Robert's closest friends are five wacky married couples who frequently invite Robert to visit them. Robert willingly goes and witnesses the pros and cons of married behaviour.

First there are Harry and Sarah. Harry is on the wagon and Sarah is on a diet, again. They are obviously deeply in love, yet they insist on policing each other and competing with each other.

Peter and Susan can't live with or without each other, and a Mexican divorce is part of their unique solution to their marital difficulties.

Robert introduces David and Jenny to marijuana. The immediate result is fun but the final result is guilt, with the blame getting passed from husband to wife to guest.

On the day of their wedding, Amy decides she cannot face the prospect of legalizing her union with Paul. Neither the bridegroom nor Robert, the best man, can apparently persuade her to go through with the wedding, and Amy runs hysterically about the apartment burning the toast and boiling the orange juice.

The last of the couples is Joanne and Larry. Joanne is a loud, abrasive, but very perceptive lady with a drinking problem. Larry is her strong and understanding husband. Joanne is hard on others but mostly because she is hard on herself.

Finally, there are Robert's assortment of girl friends. There is April, the dumbest of stewardesses; Kathy, the nice girl on her way back to Vermont to contract a second-best marriage; and Marta, who is indescribable.

"Company" was written by George Furth with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, and was originally produced on Broadway by Harold Prince. At UT-Dallas, it is directed by Michael Gillespie with musical direction by Bill Graham.

Conductor of the orchestra is Peter Vollmers, and Tom Bunch is coordinator of the scenic elements. All are members of the UT-Dallas faculty. Choreographer is Marti D. Harvey.

Tickets are priced at $2 for adults and $1 for students, and may be reserved by calling 690-2777.

By UTD Composer

Opera Being Written

The first opera to be based on a film is now being composed by Dr. Robert Xavier Rodriguez, resident composer at The University of Texas at Dallas.

Along with a large orchestral work, the opera was commissioned from Rodriguez by the National Endowment for the Arts as part of the American Bicentennial celebration.

Based on the 1943 Marcel Carne film "Les Visiteurs du Soir," the opera will have an English libretto adapted by opera director Frans Boerlage from the original French screenplay by Jacques Prevert and Pierre La Roche.

The story, a romantic legend about two devils, male and female, who come to Earth in the Middle Ages to bring despair among lovers, is "well suited to both opera and film because of the fairy tale atmosphere of magic and the supernatural," Dr. Rodriguez said.

Rodriguez began the opera last year while teaching at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, and continued his work during summer in a studio at the Palace of Fontainebleau, France, under the supervision of the noted teacher, Nadia Boulanger. While in Paris, he conferred with the film's producer, Andre Paulve.

As for the music itself, "relatively small musical resources, some actual Medieval tunes, and frequent references to the clear structural techniques and vocally gratifying musical gestures of pre-19th Century opera— as exemplified in Mozart and Monteverdi— will be employed in the composition," according to the composer.

A native of San Antonio, the 29-year old composer holds degrees in composition from UT-Austin and the University of Southern California. Additionally, his musical education has included private study with Mme. Boulanger, Hunter Johnson, Halsey Stevens and Jacob Druckman, and master classes with Bruno Maderna and Elliott Carter.

Hydrogen peroxid helps marble stain

By Polly Cramer

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — Our young lady laid an open red permanent felt tip marker on the marble top to her old dresser. What can I do to remove the resulting red stain? — D.B.

DEAR D.B. — Stains on marble should be removed immediately. You might try using a pad soaked with hydrogen peroxide OR full strength ammonia. Cover pad with glass or plastic so as to prevent evaporation. It may take anywhere from one hour to a couple of days to draw out the stain. Take care when doing this, and I suggest wearing rubber gloves. Any finish on the marble will be removed so it will require repolishing. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with clothing with lightweight cardboard tags sewn in, so that when trying to remove such tags the stitching is torn and a new item must be mended at once. This is especially true with girls' panties.

My husband carries his lunch to work every day and was so tired of a steady diet of cold sandwiches. I bought a wide mouthed thermos, and now he has a variety of hot dishes. Many are leftovers with the amount needed for his lunch taken from the dish before it is put on the table.

I often include beef stroganoff, spaghetti with meat sauce, macaroni and rice dishes with meat and sauce, tuna and noodles, chicken or turkey with dressing and so on. — ROSA.

DEAR POLLY — If you have black heel marks on the floor or on shoes from one heel hitting the other shoe they can be easily removed with a commercial pre-wash spray. It will also remove ballpoint pen marks as well as marks made with a feather type pen. Just spray on the marks, leave a few seconds and wipe off with a paper towel or soft cloth. This is a sure way to clean any marks from patent leather shoes and removes finger marks from purses promptly. — VULA.

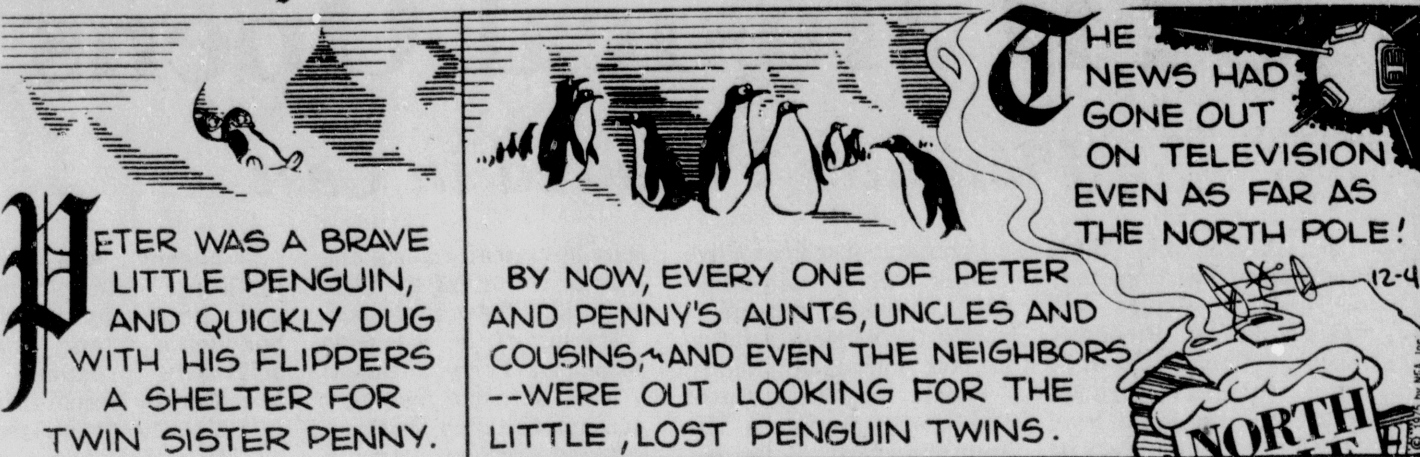

DEAR READERS — H.J.G. also wrote that she uses a prewash spray to remove tar from white shoes. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — As we get older we become more forgetful, so I have found a good system for letter writing. When I get a letter that is to be answered I put it in my letter holder. Then when something occurs that I think would interest one of my correspondents, I jot down a couple of words as a reminder on the proper envelope. So, when I answer the letter I have some interesting things to say. When a letter is answered I write across the letter "answered Aug. 20" or when ever and I keep this until I receive a reply and then I discard it. — ETHEL.

DEAR POLLY — To do away with that so-called static electricity that often occurs after slacks are washed I sprinkle a little talcum on my legs before putting on the slacks and they fall right in place. — CHRIS.

For Friday, Dec. 5, 1975

— Bernice Bode Osol

ARIES (March 21-April 19) It's good to be optimistic, but today you overdo it a bit and stamp "Mission Accomplished" on projects just begun.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be careful today about telling little white lies. You'll have to fib again to cover your tracks. Things will balloon out of all proportion.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If at all possible, try not to advise friends regarding their financial affairs today. It could complicate matters.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) A strong opinion you have probably will not be too popular today. It may only serve to turn others off.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) If you feel a little sluggish today, it's because you've been neglecting to exercise. A brisk walk could help.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Overindulgence is the main temptation you have to guard against today. Keep the old waistline in mind.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Don't spring any uninvited guests on your spouse today. The last thing that's desired is to entertain a houseful of people.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) It's better to talk face-to-face with someone you've hired for a special job. You want to be sure that they understand — to the letter.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't pamper your yen to be extravagant. Back away from anything that even appears to be of an expensive nature today.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Above all, don't put on pretentious airs to impress anyone today. If they don't accept you as you truly are, it will be their loss.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You have a tendency today to embellish the facts. While you're trying to make others take notice, it may have the opposite effect.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Shy away from a pal who feels that what you have is his as well. He'd be the first to back off if the roles were reversed.

Your Birthday
Dec. 5, 1975

Your chances of accumulating a little surplus this coming year are very good. You'll be even more motivated to acquire materially if you earmark the funds for something special.

UPI Picks All-America Grid Team

Plano's Thomas Makes First Team Defense

By FRED McMANE
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI) — The University of Oklahoma Wednesday led the parade of college football talent named to the United Press International All-America team by placing four players on Dewey. It marked the first time that two brothers were named to the All-America team in the same year. Another brother, Lucious, was a first team All-America selection as a middle guard two years ago.

and Texas each placed one. The team was selected by balloting of sports writers and sportscasters from across the nation. The first team backfield —re running backs Archie Griffin of Ohio State, Ricky Bell of Southern California

United Press International's All-American football team is the third such prestigious award to Plano's Patrick Thomas. Thomas was selected to UPI's first team defense as a cornerback. Thomas has already been named to the Football Coaches Association All-American Team and the Associated Press' team. Thomas plays at Texas A&M, a four year letterman. He graduated from Plano High School in 1972 and led Plano to the 1971 Class AAA State Championship as a running back.

the 23-man squad. The third-ranked Sooners, losers only once in 11 games this season, had on the first team offensive guard Terry Webb, defensive end Jimbo Elrod and the Selmon brothers, defensive tackle Leroy and middle guard

Top-ranked Ohio State, second-ranked Texas A&M, fourth-ranked Alabama, eighth ranked Penn State, California and Notre Dame each had two players on the team while Toledo, Southern California, Georgia, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Navy and Chuck Muncie of California and quarterback Gene Swick of Toledo. Griffin was named to the team for the third straight year, making him the first player since Doak Walker (1947-49) to do it three times. On the offensive line are wide receiver Steve Rivera of California, tight end Ken MacAfee of Notre Dame, tackles Bob Simmons of Texas and Dennis Lick of Wisconsin, guards Webb and Randy Johnson of Georgia and center Rik Bonness of Nebraska. Chris Bahr of

Penn State, with 18 field goals, is the placekicker. The defensive line is made up of Elrod and Leroy Cook of Alabama at ends, Steve Niehaus and Leroy Selmon at tackles and Dewey Selmon at middle guard. Ed Simonini of Texas A&M, Greg Buttle of Penn State and Woodrow Lowe of Alabama are the linebackers and Chet Moeller of Navy, Tim Fox of Ohio State and Pat Thomas of Texas A&M comprise the deep backs. MacAfee, Bell and Johnson are the only underclassmen on the team and Lowe joins Griffin as the lone repeaters from last year's team. The offensive backfield has and three running backs with 4,692 yards rushing and 32 touchdowns between and scoring eight.

Swick, a 6-foot-1, 188-pounder, led the nation in total offense with 2,706 yards, an average of 246 yards a game. He finished second in passing with 17.3 completions per game, passing for 15 touchdowns

PHS Grapplers Win Over Bishop Lynch

Plano Senior High School's Varsity wrestling team overcame an 18-3 deficit to beat Bishop Lynch of Dallas 33-24 in a dual match Tuesday night.

After five matches, Plano was down 18-3 in points, but the Wildcats muscled under and put out superlative effort in winning six of their remaining seven matches to sweep the dual match 33 points to 24 points. The win puts Plano's dual match record at 4-0.

"We had great effort from the wrestlers," Coach Taylor Webb said. "It was outstanding."

When we were down 18-3 I felt we had a chance to comeback in the heavier weight classes. Bishop Lynch is an exceptionally good team in the lower weights but we are strong in our heavier weights."

Arlington Tops Plano JV Girls

Plano High School's Junior Varsity basketball teams lost twice in games with Arlington Lamar Tuesday night.

In the 'Maroon' game, Plano lost 30-28. Plano's leading scorers were Karen Brannon with 18 points, Melanie Carlin with six points and Debbie Magill with four points. Outstanding guard was Donna Herrin.

The 'White' JV lost to Arlington 51-48. Plano's top guard was Sharon Randolph. Offensive leaders were Kim Newton with 25 points, Jo Vanderlinden with 13 points, Chris Carroll with eight points and Lori Marsh with two points.

Plano's second win in the 112 lb. class as Stan Burgess won on a unanimous 4-0 decision over Wessels. Andy Cates followed with a win in the 138 lb. class by pinning Lynch's Cooper in the second period.

Williams 9th Girls Win Over Cedar Hill

Williams High School's freshmen girls' basketball team beat Cedar Hill 38-26 Tuesday night. Plano led the entire game by quarters, 9-4, 17-13 and 27-13.

Leading scorer for the Warriors was Janice Smith with 18 points followed by Jon Johnson with 12 points. D'Ann Dube scored four points and two points each was added by Debbie Griffin and Nona Frizzell.

Guards playing in the game were Sherri Pedigo, Cheryl Hite, Lynette Taylor and Laurie McDaniel. Plano shot 26 percent on both freethrows and from the field.

"Shooting 36 percent from both the floor and freethrow line really hurts," Coach Sue Mudie said. "We have to do better if we want to win."

Work Continues at U of P

Work is continuing on erecting a new baseball diamond for the University of Plano Pirates baseball team. Coach Steve Adair, right, and volunteer worker T.O. Brewton have been constructing the diamond for several weeks. The U of P lost their original diamond on a land sale and are erecting the new diamond about 300 yards northwest of the previous location. Work done to date includes all dirt excavating including clay on the infield, rye grass seeded for winter and power lines moved. Future work includes erecting a new fence line, building dugouts etc. "The hard part is really completed," Coach Adair said. Cost of the diamond is expected to be about $7100 which is being paid for by the University and donors wishing to see the U of P winning baseball program continued. Since 1970, the Pirates have had a 112-74 record, never a losing season, and last year a 29-15 record against top NCAA baseball competition. The Pirates have no money in their program for the diamond and donations may be made to the baseball program by contacting Adair at 424-6541. A 54 game schedule is planned by Adair for the 1976 season. (Staff photo by Mike Newman).

Wildcat Sextet Downs Lamar 91-37

Plano Girls Shoot 63% From Field

Coach Rita Barnes said. Plano's win brings their record to 2-3, their second victory in a row and the first time they have won at Arlington Lamar. One reason for the Plano victory was domination by the forwards over the Lamar guards. The forwards played well defensively, not allowing the Lamar guards to transfer the ball to their forwards. Plus, the forwards were hot shooting and were finding the open spaces for clear percentage shots.

"Their guards were not playing good position against our offense, but that is the way our offense is set up," Coach Rita Barnes said. "We are playing a new offense this season and it is designed to take advantage of the other team's mistakes, find open spaces in their defense, and cause the defense to be confused."

High Scorer
Plano's leading point producer was Jean Zirzelbach with 23 points. Kathy Patterson scored 18 points and Lisa Turner added 17 points.

Melinda Smith scored 12 points. All forwards suited up for the game played and scoring were Dixie Bowers with nine points, Dee Cathey with six points, Ann Arledge with four points and Debbie Slazer with two points. Defensively, the Plano standout was Sharon Darity with 11 rebounds. Lisa Turner had four rebounds to pace the forward defense as Plano totally dominated the boards. Plano's only weak point in the game was turnovers, which have run high for the team each game.

Football Puts North Texas in Spotlight

By MIKE RABUN
DENTON, Tex. (UPI) — It's not that Jitter Nolan is pleased with the way of things. He just accepts it. Like most academicians, deep down he must deplore the fact that few citizens know anything about an institution of higher learning except what happens at the stadium on Saturday. "I've been traveling around the country of late," said Nolan, president of North Texas State University. "And people are still talking about our victory over Tennessee. "I would like to think that this is not the only way to judge a university. But it is a fact that many people don't know anything about a school except what its football team is accomplishing. "And if that is the way people are going to judge a school, I guess no other university in the country has made as much progress than we have this year." Having determined that football is essential to the public recognition of a major university, Nolan now faces the task of keeping the school's team at the level it reached during 1975 — which was a 7-4 record with the most difficult schedule in the school's history. And to do that he feels he must make certain he keeps his current head coach — Hayden Fry — and fend off NCAA thoughts of reducing North Texas, with a 17,000 enrollment, to "small college" status at the organization's January convention in St. Louis.

Keeping the coach should not be all that big a problem, although Fry has done some sword rattling in advance of firm contract discussions with Nolan. "I'm not shopping around," said Fry, who came to North Texas three seasons ago after being fired at Southern Methodist. "But I would be a fool not to listen to any offers. And I have been contacted by three schools already this year. I'm going to at least listen to them. Fry indicates memories of his experience at SMU leave him cautious about turning down new opportunities. "I was made some promises before" he said. "And then with two years left on my contract I get fired with a 7-4 team. "But, really, my goal now is to develop North Texas into the top independent team in this part of the country
